

Women's Information Factsheet

November 2024

<https://www.facebook.com/burmesewomensunion>

<https://burmesewomensunion.org>

Women are being killed every day due to grave human rights violations committed by the military terrorist.

Death

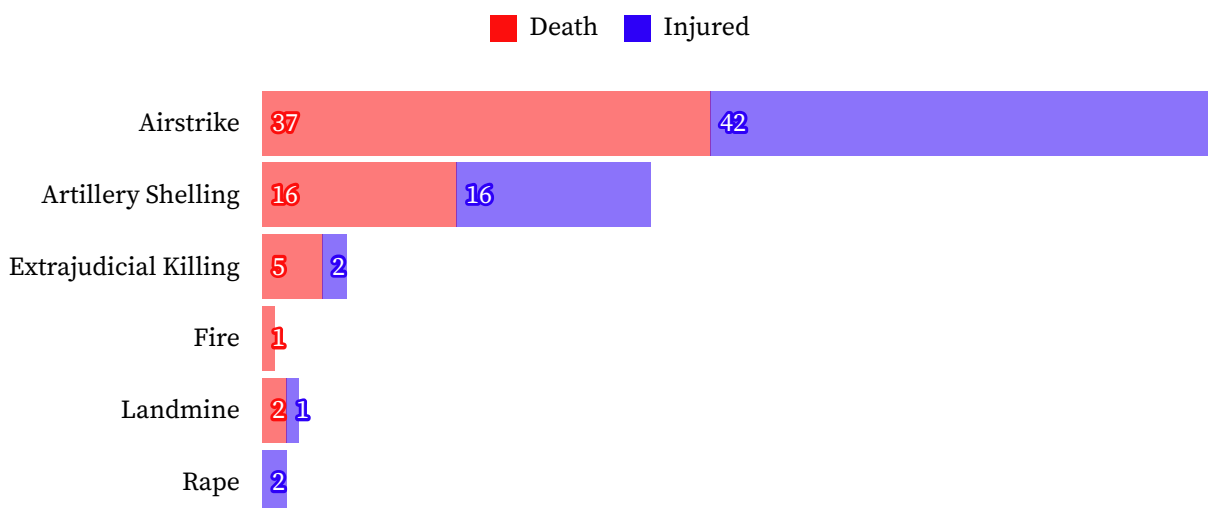

61 Women

Injured

63 Women

Number of Women Death and Injured

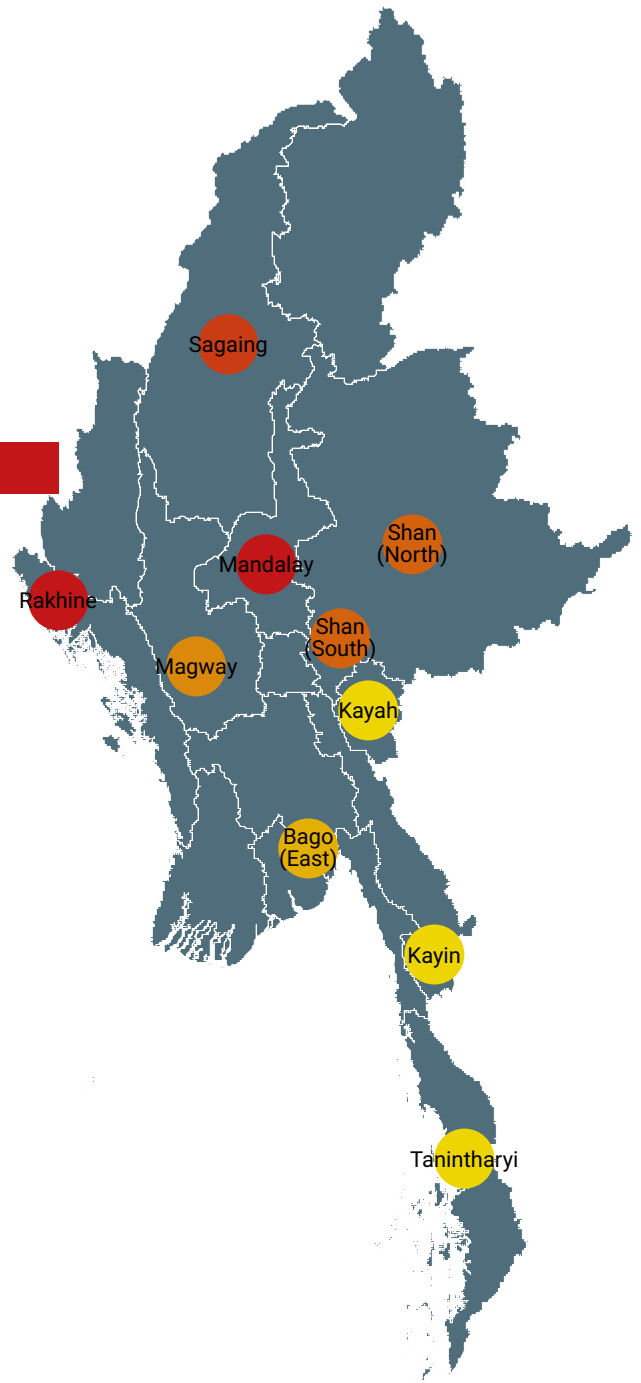

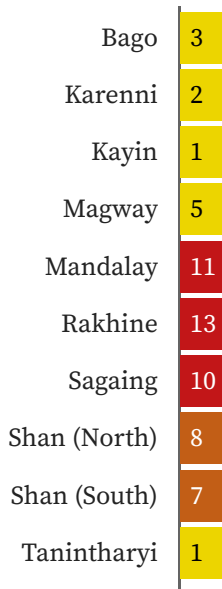

Due to BWU's constant media monitoring from various reliable local medias outlet, (61)women were killed from 1st -30th November 2024 across the country. Among them (37) women lost their lives due to the military airstrike, (16) were killed due to military artillery shelling targeting civilian homes and villages, (5) were extrajudicial killing by the military terrorists, (2) were due to landmines, and (1) were fired by the military tyranny. Additionally, (63) women were injured; (42) were by the airstrike, (16) were artillery shelling, (2) were extrajudicial killing, (2) were raped, and (1) woman was killed by fire. Shan (North) had the highest number of women wounded (11) in November due to an airstrike.

Note: The actual figures could be much higher on the ground as there are challenges in information flow and obstacles to accessing them.

Number of Women Death By Regions

Following the media monitoring and data collected by BWU, the number of women deaths was (15) from the Shan State, ((13) from the Rakhine state, (11) from the Mandalay region, and (10) from the Sagaing region; Shan State recorded the highest number of women death in November 2024.

Note: The actual figures could be much higher on the ground as there are challenges in information flow and obstacles to accessing them.

<https://www.facebook.com/burmesewomensunion>

<https://burmesewomensunion.org>